Our mission statement at Blenheim is:

'Aiming High in the Heart of the City'.

Under strong leadership and governance, we are committed to achieving best equality practice in all areas of school life. We believe it is the responsibility of all our stakeholders to promote inclusion, challenge prejudice, bias and stereotyping and together create a cohesive school community where all pupils can learn and achieve their full potential regardless of gender, race, disability, age, sexual orientation or faith.

Our school aims are to:

- ensure all pupils achieve their maximum potential, by having high expectations and excellent standards
- provide a calm and positive atmosphere, where children and staff are safe, healthy, happy, confident and motivated.
- celebrate and respect our diversity
- take pride in our school and local environment
- provide a stimulating and differentiated curriculum
- work in partnership with parents and the local community
- recognise achievement and celebrate success in all areas of school life

The school. We will:-

- Encourage children to do their best at all times and to contribute to the aims of the school.
- Arrange parent/teacher consultations, at which children's progress will be discussed, and send home an annual record of achievement.
- Let parents know about any concerns or problems that affect their child's work or behaviour.
- Take into account any concerns or problems at home, brought to their attention by the child or the family, which might affect the child's work or behaviour.
- Set, mark and monitor homework.
- Invite parents to special class or school events and assemblies.

The family. We will:-

- Ensure their child arrives at school on time – by 8.45 am.

- Ensure their child is picked up promptly at 3.15 pm.
- Ensure their child attends school regularly and is properly equipped.
- Inform school, as soon as possible, of any absence their child may have.
- Support the school's aims and policies.
- Let the school know about any concerns or problems that may affect their child's work or behaviour.
- Try to resolve any concerns or problems, brought to their attention by school, which might affect their child's work or behaviour.
- Attend parent/teacher consultation evenings and discussions about their child's progress.
- Support children with their homework.

The child. I will:-

- Do all classwork and homework as well as I can, asking questions when I don't understand.
- Be respectful towards others and behave in a safe and responsible way.
- Be kind, helpful and honest.
- Do my homework and give it in on time.
